

Non-exponential decay laws

A. Jensen

Aalborg University

Perturbation of an embedded eigenvalue usually leads to an exponential decay law, often subsumed under the term “the Fermi Golden Rule”. I will consider the case of perturbation of an eigenvalue embedded at a threshold, which under certain conditions will lead to a non-exponential decay law. Joint work with V. Dinu and G. Nenciu, Bucharest, Romania.