

Semiclassical estimates and beyond

T. Weidl

Stuttgart University

I give a review on results on Lieb-Thirring type estimates during the past decade. Starting from sharp values on the Lieb-Thirring constants I will discuss, among others, logarithmic bounds and improved Li-Yau estimates with correction terms of sharp order with some applications to heat kernel estimates.